

Meet Shari

SHARI
SIMPSON

HR Professional

Shari has 15+ years of experience as an HR professional in training and development, payroll and benefits administration, employee relations and talent acquisition all while working in a variety of industries including healthcare, local government, real estate, consumer goods and technology. She has collaborated with managers and senior executives to build partnerships and create innovative strategies that drive results. In her current role, she creates and manages organization-wide HR programs for Paylocity.

She also hosts the podcast PCTY Talks which is focused on helping elevate HR, Payroll and Business professionals' impact on their business by sharing new and progressive ideas in thought leadership and tackling today's tough relevant topics. Additionally, Shari is the HR Co-Lead for the woman's employee resource group, SHEroes. Shari holds her SHRM-SCP, MBA and MHRM.